April Newsletter 2016

Hi there,

A very quick update: I didn't win the Richard Watts Charities Art competition, but I've never entered anything like this before. I got two out of pieces short listed which was excellent. It's also given me a taste for entering these sorts of thing, so

I'll get over the disappointment!

My workshops are going great guns!

Here is a reminder of my next ones in the lovely setting of St Mary's Church Higham, with an optional walk on the Marsh to get those creative juices flowing! Dates: 14th 15th May. Times: 12-4 Price £25 for one day £50 booking essential.

Also there is the Active Artists weekend in St Andrews Arts Centre Gravesend on Sat 23rd and Sun 24th April. Come along and take a peep at me working. I'm planning a collage Marsh extravaganza: LOVE WHERE YOU LIVE & protect it!
